Reuters journalists use social media to report and distribute news and we are developing new standards and guidelines to help us do that in a way that we can retain the trust of our audience. As those guidelines are developed, they will be added to the Handbook of Journalism.

The fall of the Wall-and the media's role

The mass media have been studied in reasonably formal and systematic ways for quite a long time, about as long as Western media systems have been composed of "true" mass media as we tend to define them today—as mechanisms for delivering content to large, heterogeneous, dispersed, anonymous audiences that have restricted opportunities to respond to the producers of that content (cf ...
